

Reverend Jody Wood is an ordained minister since 2000. She is a strategist working with businesses, ministries, and governments. She works with the faith community in New York City, the USA and Nations to bring fundamental change for the people in every community. She is passionate about seeing society transformed for the advancement of all peoples.

Work Focuses:

January 2000 to current - Director of NYCI a prayer ministry in NYC.

January 2003 to current - NY representative for a NGO out of Wales to the United Nations in NY and Geneva. Works alongside member states and delegations to bring strategies and influence of change to impact society.

January 2023 to current - Representative of NGO to The Palace of Nations, Geneva Switzerland

Jody led teams to Geneva, Switzerland to attend and influence the WHO and the World Health Assembly in 2023, and 2024. She and her team were successful, along with the work of other organizations, to slow down the advancement of the Globalist Agenda, one example being the lack of votes to pass the Pandemic Treaty in its current form.
